Meinkopf is the first German ace brought down by an American.

March outlined the general military situation, saying that few outstanding features had developed during the past few days. He said that the war department was still without figures as to the American casualties during the recent drive. The situation continues to be satisfactory, he said.

MORGAN FURNITURE CO. KEEPS OPEN HOUSE IN NEW STORE

INTERIOR ARRANGEMENT PLEASING—REST ROOM AND MEZZANINE ADDED.

The Morgan Furniture Company reception to old and new customers, given since yesterday morning and throughout today, in honor of the store's removal into the large new building on Second Avenue, was in full swing last night and closed just in time for the big refreshing shower. A few of the guests were water-bound at the store building but these found themselves in a good place with plenty of hot coffee, made in most approved style by F. T. Thorson. And there was real cream and plenty of sugar for all. Also there was much "punch" left to keep up the spirits of "the prisoners of hope."

The impressive thing about the interior of the new store is the changed appearance wrought by the addition of the balconies, the rest room and the large ware room at the back. The main front sales room 50x100; the ware room 50x35 on the first floor; the side balconies of 10x100 each, the front balcony 10x50 and the back balcony 20x50 added to the full third floor, makes for the Morgan people a floor space well into the thousands of square feet. An open railing encloses the balconies which adds materially to the spacious open appearance of the new quarters.

On all sides appeared handsome decorations, the handiwork of Mrs. John L. Proctor, assisted by the wives of the regular salesmen of the concern.

The Band Dispensed Inspiring Music
The band, composed of William Rahm, first cornet; Will Thompson, second cornet; J. A. Buttry, violin; H. Z. Kinney, piano; Herbert Hawk, clarinet; J. H. Waggoner, trombone, throughout the evening, played number after number of rattling good airs, including "Over There," "Can the Kaiser" and the national songs.

A strong supporting attraction in a musical way last night were the vocal solos by Mrs. R. M. McGlathery, Miss Mary Penick, Miss Katie Reece, B. B. Pickens and Willard Proctor, little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Proctor. An interesting guest from Nashville present, who assisted Mr. Proctor and his regular corps of entertainers was E. Holder of Nashville, of the Phillips & Buttorff Company. Mr. Holder was paying special attention to the demonstration and operation of the Florence Automatic Oil Cooking Stoves.

The ladies who assisted Mrs. Proctor in the scheme of decoration and in serving refreshments to the guests were: Mrs. H. H. Hunter, Mrs. Jesse Mainard, Mrs. J. B. Schimmel. The salesmen present who are to assist Manager Proctor in the conduct of the store were: H. H. Hunter, Jesse Mainard, J. B. Schimmel, M. L. Bracken and Mrs. J. L. Proctor, bookkeeper.

The Manager in Speaking of His Plans.
In speaking of his plans in the furniture business, J. L. Proctor, the manager, said: "I have always thought that the best service is the biggest service. I mean by that to say that the more people I can serve the better values I can give to all. With this in mind, it has been my steady purpose since I took hold of the Morgan Furniture Co., to enlarge the business as fast as possible in the amount of stock carried and in the number of customers served. As is well known, for a number of years I was engaged here, in the general mercantile business; but the more I learned about the furniture business the more anxious I was to go into that business. Our firm is perhaps the oldest one in Albany doing a general furniture business. I went with

CHILDLESS MEN GO IN CLASS ONE IF CASE APPEALED

INSTRUCTIONS TO THAT EFFECT RECEIVED FROM DISTRICT BOARD.

Married men without children, unless they have other dependents, will be put into class one, in the event that an appeal is made to the district board. Instructions to this effect were received by the local board today from the district board.

The situation in Morgan county, however, is a peculiar one. The recent enlistment of Chas. H. Eyster, appeal agent, in the navy, has left the government unrepresented by an attorney in this county, and will necessitate the appointment of a successor to Mr. Eyster, or action by the legal advisory board of the county.

The local board has held that it was correct in placing married men without children who pleaded dependency in one of the lower classes, and will adhere to this ruling. Secretary Draper today stated, however, that in the event appeals were made to the district board, there was no doubt but that the registrant would be placed in Class One and would become subject to immediate call.

As the class of June 5, 1918, has not yet been called, it is probable that August calls will be filled from it. After this class is exhausted, men can be obtained only through appealed cases or by raising or lowering the draft age.

JAPAN HOLDS UP RUSSIAN MOVE

NO ACTION TO BE TAKEN UNTIL PLAN PERFECTED.

(International News Service.)
Washington, July 27.—The administration maintained silence on the Russian situation today.

Despite the official announcement in Tokyo that Japan has assented to the plan proposed by President Wilson, officials had nothing to say regarding the plan itself. It is explained that further negotiations with Japan are in progress, and that until these are settled the allied policy cannot be made public here. An earnest plea that the newspapers refrain from speculation was made by administration officials.

FRENCH EXTEND LINE DURING LAST NIGHT; DRIVE HAS SLOWED UP

GAINS MADE NORTH OF PORTE-A-BINSON. FEW PRISONERS ARE TAKEN

HUNS PLAN HEAVY COUNTER ATTACK

Soissons Still Held by Enemy. Effort to Pocket It Continues

(International News Service.)
With the American Armies in France, July 27.—(2 p. m.)—American forces early today pressed forward across the Fere-En-Tardennois-Jaulgonne road, capturing a farm southwest of Fresnes. The Boche continues to fight stubbornly and his resistance is holding up the American advance.

Glorious victories for allied arms marks the fourth anniversary of the world war.

Just ten days ago today the French and American armies standing on the Aisne-Marne-Champagne front unleashed a terrific counter offensive that has won vastly important ground from the Germans and has completely upset the "driving plans" of the German high command.

Two great pivotal positions between the Aisne and Marne have been taken by the Franco-Americans—Chateau Thierry and Oulchy-Le-Chateau. While the allies have been compelled to slow up their advance, they are still gaining ground at important sectors of the 65-mile battle line, tightening the menace to the German troops that are still trying to hold on to the southern side of the Aisne-Marne salient.

During the night the French extended their lines north of Porte-A-Binson. In this zone the Germans are putting up desperate resistance.

The greatest allied gains have been made north of Chateau Thierry, where the maximum advance is about 14 miles. The Americans have won the lion's share of the credit of the fighting in that area. All of the important Soissons-Oulchy-Le-Chateau-Chateau Thierry railway is now in allied hands, and a great encircling movement is in progress on the northern end of the front, directed against Soissons and Fere-En-Tardennois.

Soissons is so strongly fortified that the allies deemed a frontal attack inadvisable and have directed their pressure south of the city in an attempt to pocket the position. Barely more than three miles of German front separates the allied forces from the German supply center at Fere-En-Tardennois.

(International News Service.)
Rome, July 27.—Enemy assaults at Monte Carno, Asiago, Asolo and Stelvia were repulsed, the war office announced today.

(International News Service.)
Amsterdam, July 27.—Karl Rosner, of the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger, and the Kaiser's "pet" correspondent, reveals in dispatches to his paper that the Kaiser and his generals expected the greatest possible results from the German drive on the Marne. The Kaiser issued an order to his troops, telling them that they were fighting "under his eyes, for God, the Kaiser and the empire."

The greatest concern is expressed in Germany over the condition of Von Hindenburg. Many of the German people attribute the reverses to reports of his illness and death.

(International News Service.)
Washington, July 27.—The state department today received confirmation of the refusal of allied diplomats to remove from Voglia to Moscow at the invitation of the Bolshevik government. The diplomats refused because of the presence of German soldiers there.

(International News Service.)
Paris, July 27.—Captured German officers have revealed that Dr. Von Kuehlmann, former German foreign secretary, delivered his "Germany cannot win" speech to the Reichstag with the approval of the Kaiser and Von Hindenburg. However, Gen. Ludendorff threatened to resign unless Von Kuehlmann resigned.

(International News Service.)
Paris, July 27.—By thrusting vigorously north of the Marne, the French have advanced their lines to the north of Port-a-Binson, the war office announced today.
At the same time the French advanced in the Champagne district east of Rheims, advancing their front about one kilometer on a front of three kilometers. The communique describes the fighting in the Champagne area as a "local operation," but 200 prisoners were captured there.

(International News Service.)
With the American Army at the Marne, July 26.—(Night.)—The Americans engaged the Germans this afternoon during a thunderstorm, attacking in the Riz forest east of Chamel. Information reaching the rear tonight indicated that the Germans were offering the stiffest kind of resistance.

(International News Service.)
London, July 27.—Only raids and artillery firing were reported by the British war office today. The German batteries were active in the Somme and Ancre valleys, while raids were conducted between Hailly and Lens.

(International News Service.)
With the American Army at the Marne, July 26.—The Americans have now participated in every possible form of warfare, and they have made good everywhere.
There are growing indications that the Germans are preparing an attempt to launch a monster counter offensive in an effort to regain the initiative. There is also undisputable evidence that Germany's man power has become dangerously low, some divisions being composed of only 3,500 bayonets.

THE BOLSHEVIKI THREAT TO FIGHT THE ALLIES

One of the strange inconsistencies of the war is the threat of the Bolsheviks, or present ruling faction in Russia, to declare war on the allies because of the sending of a small armed force to the Murman coast to aid its inhabitants in protecting themselves against German invasion. There can be no doubt that the threat was dictated by the German intriguists who now have the Lenin-Trotsky government under their thumb, and is further evidence of the betrayal of their country by the men who claimed to be its best friends.

That the Bolsheviks, who abjectly surrendered to the Huns, who refused to further resent the invasion of their territory by a nation upon which Russia had deliberately declared war, should be so extremely sensitive in regard to national rights as to turn upon their friends and former confederates, is more than ridiculous. Traitors have been shot for possessing just such a brand of patriotism as this.

The allies are not withdrawing their troops from the Murman coast because of the ill temper displayed by the Bolsheviks. On the other hand, plans are being perfected for the co-operation of the Japanese in freeing the Czech-Slav, or patriotic element, from the indignities heaped upon them by the invaders of their soil. Any drastic action which the rabidly pro-German crowd in Russia may take will be neutralized by the military support furnished by the Japanese, co-operating with the troops that will be sent into Russia by the other allied powers. It will be demonstrated that the people of Russia, with the exception of purchasable leaders, are still dominated by a love of liberty and a sincere desire to work out their own future.

As the impotence of the German fighting machine becomes more apparent, the choler of the Lenin-Trotsky crowd will proportionately wane. The fight spirit of these cravens, which was admittedly too weak to keep them in the war after America had come to the rescue and victory was in sight, can hardly be depended on by Germany as guarantees of any substantial military support. It will be a real surprise if Russia does not get back into the war on the side of the allies as soon as it becomes evident that backing is to be obtained from the outside.

A THOUGHT FOR USE SUNDAY; AND EVERY OTHER DAY

BY OBSERVER

"On the grounds that falsity cannot be proven of opinion, but only of fact," Lawyer Denson was relieved of one count in the indictment brought against him in Judge Grubb's court at Birmingham yesterday. Denson was acquitted—convicted under the espionage law.

The point is: How considerate that court was compared to ordinary people. The latter go mostly by the opinions they hear. A court is not allowed to go by mere opinion; it must have the facts. About the nearest we come to divine procedure on this earth is in our courts. William H. Taft gave expression to this belief some years ago and was laughed at for it. We are taught that there are vicious courts. Perhaps. Very well; but almost any court's decision is better than mere opinion; and opinion in action is the mob. Every sane man of good will endorses the latest appeal of President Wilson which is epitomized as follows:

"Every American who takes part in the action of a mob is no true son of this great democracy, but its betrayer."

Any man who does not reverence and obey laws of our own beloved land who has adopted the standards of the enemies of his country; whom he affects to despise.

Germany has outlawed herself among the nations because she has made lynchers of her armies. Lynchers emulate her disgraceful example.

We proudly claim to be the champions of democracy. If we really are, let us see to it that we do not discredit our own.

Every mob contributes to German lies about the United States what her most gifted liars cannot improve upon by the way of calumny. They can at least say that such things cannot happen in Germany except when law is swept away.

How shall we commend democracy to the acceptance of other peoples if we disgrace our own by proving that it is, after all, no protection to the weak?

Every lynching has been a blow at the heart of ordered law and humane justice."

Unthoughtful people believe that the Savior had a trial. He did not. It was the mob crying "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" "And they cried out for the more—'Crucify Him! Crucify Him!'" This kind of power, not the power of the law, sent Him to the Cross. The main contention of those Jewish churchmen against the Christ was that He said He was the Son of God. Suppose that damnable court had followed Judge Grubb's rule; suppose that court had waited for proof as to whether or not Jesus was the Son of God? If they had only insisted on proof one way or the other!

Today, the only vital question in the last analysis is: Will we seek out the truth about who Christ is for ourselves and be governed accordingly? And not depend on the opinions of others and least of all on the poor showing His many misguided would-be followers make. Will we, like Pilate, wash our hands of Him; and let the crowd do what they please with Him and His cause? If we so decide, we, crucify Him anew and put Him to an open shame. And it were "better that a mill-stone were hanged about our neck and be cast into the sea."

International News Service Correspondent Finds Road to News Centers Rather Rocky

(International News Service)

New York, July 26.—Bert Ford, one of the International News Service staff correspondents now in the war zone, recently had a narrow escape from serious injury while on his way to the front. In a letter to the manager of the International News Service here he tells of his experience in his inimitable style as follows:

Dear Mr. —: Inclosed please find two mail stories and expense bills. The past two days are actually the first I have had to clean up such affairs. I deserve a reprimand, but I have been chucked around so from pillar to post that I did not have an opportunity properly to figure it out until things slackened up a bit.

What delayed me at the outset was the loss of my memo book in Neufchateau. Conditions at Beauvais were bad. We were bombed out of bed every night for about three weeks, finally being obliged to sleep in wheat fields. I did not have time to write to my wife for nearly three months. The courier arrangement for copy at Beauvais was not satisfactory, but the best the censor could do.

Last week I was nearly killed in an automobile accident; that is, I had an extremely narrow escape. Our car crashed head-on with a French touring car. I was in the front seat with the chauffeur and was thrown against the glass shield, injuring my face painfully but not seriously. Cut my nose inside and out, my lip and eye. Look as if a wildcat or Jack Johnson hit me.

Another correspondent was thrown out on his head and was unconscious for twenty minutes. Jimmy Hopper

He requests that all members of his congregation attend morning and evening services on Sunday, when arrangements have been perfected for special features. Rev. Stuckey will probably be absent during the coming four weeks, conducting meetings.

BLIND NEWS DEALER

LEAVES AN ODD WILL

(International News Service.)
Pittsburg, Pa., July 27.—Henry C. Burns, a blind newsdealer, died recently leaving $10,000 which he directed to be placed in trust until the year 1990, when the interest will have increased it to $175,000, and then to be used in the erection of a home for the aged. Mr. Burns served in the Civil War.

TO THE VOTERS OF MORGAN COUNTY:

First, owing to business pressures, later to the sickness and death of my son, I have not been able to devote as much time to soliciting the support of the voters of Morgan County in my behalf in the race for sheriff. As the time is so limited I take this means of asking the influence of my friends and voters in the primary election of August 13, 1918, and if elected I will give the office my undivided attention and will discharge the duties of the office faithfully and with equal rights to all.

Thanking you in advance for any favors extended, I remain,

Respectfully yours,

R. L. PARSONS.

and Parkerson escaped with a few scratches. How I escaped a broken nose was a miracle. My nostrils had to be filled with cotton for several days. Had a beautiful black eye. Machines were badly torn up. Was not hurt otherwise and my cuts and bruises have healed rapidly.

It happened at ten in the morning. Our chauffeur, who was new at the game, passed a French camion and tried to cut in before a speeding touring car coming in the opposite direction. While we were picking ourselves up the Germans began shelling the town and several shrapnel shells broke very near us.

One victim is still under treatment. Must remain in bed in a dark room. With warmest regards to all hands, I remain, sincerely yours,
BERT FORD.

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable, I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before."

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Theodore's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

MOORE'S

BARBECUE

As guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fennell about fifty old friends were entertained yesterday afternoon at a barbecue in a beautiful grove at Fairview, and a royal day it was. The heartiness of the occasion, the cordiality of host and hostess warmed the cockles of the heart.

Rarely indeed is so congenial a company of friends brought together and a merry time was enjoyed. Barbecued roast and kid, cooked to a nicety by Mr. Fennell, master of the art, with a service of his famous Brunswick stew was served with trimmings of fried chicken and side dishes of delicacies. It was a great service and guests will long remember the "old time" good cheer that pervaded.

The occasion was a reminder of the "good old days" when present day competition and contest was unknown. It was just a mingling of friends intent upon mutual fellowship, the hostess with her usual graciousness, giving sunshine and happiness. Among those assisting were: Mesdames Gus Blackwell, F. F. Tidwell, F. H. Pointer, Henry Binford, Ed Warren, Al Blackwell and J. M. Minor.

Mrs. W. F. Holly of Albany is in Sheffield for a short while to visit her husband.

Misses Violet and Eula Howard of Memphis expects to visit Albany, their home town, the first of August.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Burks and children of Albany, enroute to Alford, Texas, stopped over in Memphis to visit Mrs. L. A. Howard and family for a few days.

Mrs. M. M. Smith and children of Albany, enroute to Louisiana for a summer vacation, stopped in Memphis to visit Mrs. L. A. Howard and children.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamlin and daughter, are expected to return tomorrow from El Reno, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jolly and son, Everett, of Memphis, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ashford.

Miss Louise Brendle of Huntsville is a guest of Miss Fossie Loyd.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Patterson returned yesterday after a two days stay with the Boy Scouts at Vinemont and report them having the time of their lives.

Scoutmaster and Mrs. T. C. Bowles are at Vinemont with the Scouts, leaving yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. J. G. Gamble of Des Moines, Iowa, is the guest of her father, Col. C. J. Hildreth.

Mrs. E. C. Payne and Mrs. Jno. W. Sheets leave next Tuesday for New York. Mrs. Payne going to North Tonawanda, N. Y., and Mrs. Sheets to Buffalo.

Miss Rosa Hoffman has returned to Chattanooga after a visit to Mrs. S. F. Otto and Mrs. C. E. Swanser.

Accidental Shot Gets Coe's Toe

CULLMAN BOY INJURED. HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL WEDS. Cullman, Ala., July 27 (Special).—Foster Coe, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Coe, of this place, had the misfortune to accidentally shoot his foot with a parlor rifle. The bullet struck his foot on the upper side and passed through. The attending physician announces that the wound, while serious, need not cause any alarm.

Prof. R. H. Sutherland, the principal of the Cullman County High School, recently elected, has arrived from Wagar, Alabama, Washington county, with his bride. He was recently married there to Miss Genevieve McClure, daughter of a well known lumber manufacturer. Mr. Sutherland left Cullman several days ago, after taking charge of the affairs of the school, to go to the southern end of the state for his bride. After they were married, they made the return trip to Cullman in their Hudson automobile, by way of Troy, Montgomery and Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland will now be at home in Cullman, where Mr. Sutherland will be in charge of the school for the next scholastic year.

Forty-one drafted men have left here for the training camps. The local exemption board received an order for eighty-one, but class one is about exhausted. The board has also received an order to hold all drafted men in the county, not allowing them to leave the county until further orders.

ICE? YES. HOW MUCH? A DIME'S WORTH. GIDDAP! (International News Service.)

Kansas City, Mo., July 27.—On a recent hot afternoon with the thermometer at 100 in the shade, a heavily loaded ice wagon lumbered slowly up the street. From a large flat on the left there emanated a woman's voice:

"Ice man! Ice man!"
After a short search the driver found the owner of the voice. "Whoa!" he called.
"How much?"
"A dime's worth."
"Giddap!"

GATHERS DAISIES IN NO MAN'S LAND

CORPORAL DRAKE SENDS HIS MOTHER FLOWERS FROM BAT-TLE FIELD.

Corporal Leslie E. Drake, of Company E, 167th Infantry, has sent his mother, Mrs. B. F. Drake, some daisies picked from "No Man's Land." He writes as follows:

June 11, 1918.

Dearest Mother and All:

Just a few lines to let you know that I am fine and in the best of health. I received your letter with the pictures and was sure glad to get them. That was some time ago, and I haven't heard since, but guess I will hear soon. Write to me real often, for you know how much a line from home is appreciated over here. All of the boys in E Company are getting along fine. We have just come out of the trenches, and mother,
I sure is a beautiful place. Daisies and every other kind of flowers are in bloom up there, and especially on the old familiar place of "No Man's Land," but none of the boys care to go out and get bouquets, as much as they would like to have one. I am sending you a couple of daisies. I suppose they will be all to pieces by the time they arrive in the little city of Albany. Now don't you think I am awfully brave to go on No Man's Land and get these daisies to send home?

I wish I could tell you some of the interesting things I see over here but of course I can't but I will remember all and tell you when I get back. It is my opinion that it won't be long, for I think the Boches realize that they can't win, and I believe that they would quit if they could. Tell Mrs. Higdon to send me John's picture and give him my address so he can write to me. I was not surprised to hear about him joining the army. I guess it is the best thing for him after all.

Where is brother Ben now? I have had but two cards from him since I have been in France. Tell him to write to me once in a while I am expecting to hear of him joining the army most any time. Distinctly get into the service as a Y. M.
C. A. worker? If she comes over tell her to write and let me know when she lands in France. I was or-pass some few days ago, and ran upon an old friend of mine from Albany. His name is Mr. Brown. I don't think you know him, but Ben is well acquainted with him. He sure was glad to see me and I was just as glad to see him.

Well, I guess I will bring this to a close, so write to me real often and send me some more pictures.

Love to all,

Your son,

Corporal Leslie E. Drake,

Co. E, 167 Inf. A. E. F. France.

EFFICIENCY THE SLOGAN OF FARMERS'

SUMMER SCHOOL AT AUBURN, ALA.

Auburn, la., July 27 (Special).—

'Learn How To Be Efficient' is to be the slogan of the farmers' summer school which meets at Auburn July 27-August 3, and which promises to be quite well attended. Real work is to be engaged in and it is announced that business will start at 8 o'clock in the morning and continue in some form or other until 10 o'clock at night.

The program is quite complete but very little attention is to be given to cotton for the reason that it is considered that Alabama farmers wish to study food, food crops and live stock more than cotton.

Mrs. Henrietta W. Calvin of Washington, D. C., will give instruction in cooking, home economics and home sanitation to the ladies attending.
Daily canning demonstrations will be carried on by Prof. Price of the Horticultural Department. Judging of cattle, hogs, horses and mules will be demonstrated by Prof. Templeton and his assistants. Methods of making cottage cheese, ice cream, frozen milks, etc., will be demonstrated daily by the Dairy Department at the College Creamery.

Prominent out-of-state people appearing on the program will include Dr. Tait Butler of the Progressive Farmer, Henry A. Clarke, mule and sheep breeder of Tennessee, Dan T.
Gray, live stock specialist from Washington, D. C., and North Carolina, and Otto Strayer of the Du-Pont Powder Co., who will show how to use dynamite on the farm.

More than $200 will be given as prizes for the best live stock, corn bread, butter, fruit, etc., exhibited.
The live stock prizes will amount to $85, and $48 will be given to individuals proving themselves to be the

Rain Pours Down; Lightning Flashes

TOTAL PRECIPITATION IN FEW HOURS WAS 1.53 INCHES.

A rain storm that for violence was almost unparalleled in the history of this section, broke over the cities last night about 10 o'clock. For nearly one hour it continued, with an electrical accompaniment of rare brilliance. Once during the storm the electric lights winked out, as a wire was struck.

After the brunt of the storm had passed, the rain continued to descend gently, and was still falling today.
Up to 7 o'clock this morning, at which hour the reading was made by Mrs. A. H. Irons, weather observer, the total precipitation was 1.53
inches.

Reports from over the county indicate that bumper crops are now practically assured.

SOCIETY WOMEN RESPOND

TO CALL FOR WAR HANDS

(International News Service)

Hartford, Conn., July 27.—To relieve the labor stringency and assure the production of a large order of army gas masks without delay,
hundreds of society women, girl office assistants and men clerks have been enrolled by the United States Rubber company to work three-hour shifts night and day.

Within forty-eight hours after he had issued a call for volunteer workers C. B. Whittelsey, president of the company, had received responses from 600 women and girls employed in insurance work. These were reinforced by scores of housewives and society women, who have been divided into shifts to fill out the anks of the regular employees.

THE CABARET AT THE

DELITE & STAR MONDAY

Caryle Blackwell and a remarkable all-star cast appear in "The Cabaret," the striking new World picture which will be shown on Monday at the Star and Delite Theatres.
The members of this cast are June Lvidge, Montagu Love, John Bowers and George MacQuarrie.

As would be expected from the use of such a remarkable cast in a single picture, "The Cabaret" is a remendously strong, exceedingly interesting drama with a punch in very reel. The story is a most surprising one. It details the love adventures of a girl seeking a livelihood who comes innocently to a student's apartment in Greenwich Village and calmly assumes possession of one of his rooms. The student is member of "The Quartet," of whom the other members are three other artists like himself. The four take an intense interest in the young girl and they vie with themselves in being nice to her until one of the number becomes jealous of her supposed preference for another member of the quartet and the pleasant relationships are disrupted and not restored.

Then happen surprising and interesting events which culminate in the happy union of two loving hearts.
It is enough to say about this picture that the interest and strength of the story are worthy the exceptional cast gathered to portray it.
"The Cabaret" is one of the strongest and most entertaining pictures of the season.

GENTLEMAN FARMER CLAIM

MET BY SARCASTIC RETORT

(International News Service)

New York, July 27.—The "work or fight" edict is creating no end of consternation among the diamond besprinkled paraders along Broadway.

"Doc" Waterbury, alleged international swindler, known more intimately to his ilk as Julius Ford, was one of the more recent ones caught in the police dragnet. When he was taken to police headquarters he was very indignant. The confidence man, who is now forty-four, said:

"Sir, you have made a grave mistake. I am a gentleman farmer. I work on my father's farm at Emfield,

N. Y. I am now down here for a few days visiting old friends."

As the famous swindler was booked as a "loafer," the police sergeant remarked to "Doc":

"If you are a farmer I am a grand opera singer."
